Numb. 9495.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 19, to Tuesday July 22, 1755.

Conſtantinople, June 16.

THE Diſgrace of the Mufti has followed that of the late Grand Vizier. Every Thing is now quiet in this City; neither do we perceive the leaſt Appearance of any contagious Diſtemper, which generally uſed to rage about this Time of the Year.

Madrid, June 24. We have received Advice, that ſeveral Fathers of the Order of the Trinitarians arrived on the 10th and 12th Inſtant at Carthagena from Algiers, with 325 Chriſtian Slaves, whom they had lately redeemed.

Genoa, June 28. On the 21ſt Inſtant a new Galley was launched in this Arſenal, which had been contracted for, for his Sardinian Majeſty's Service. As ſoon as ſhe was a float, the Officers, who came on Purpoſe from Villafranca, with Slaves, Seamen and others, took Poſſeſſion of her, and having fitted her out, ſhe departed laſt Night for Villafranca. On the 26th at Night, two of this Republick's Galleys ſailed for Calvi, having on board Seven Companies of Soldiers to change the Garriſon of that Place and Ajaccio. The new Road that is making from Seſtri di Levante into the State of Parma, is carried on with the greateſt Diligence, and it is ſaid will be compleated this Summer. The Preparations for Building a Caſtle at St. Remo, are carried on with Vigour: Large Quantities of Materials have been ſent thither, and they have begun to drive the Piles for the Foundation, having eraſed an old Church that ſtood on the Ground where the Caſtle is to be built. Letters from Baſtia of the 21ſt Inſtant adviſe, that a Reſolution had been taken in the late General Aſſembly of the Malecontents, to appropriate all the Fruits and Tenths belonging to the Biſhops and Canons of the Iſland, to enable them to oppoſe the Republick; that ſeveral other Malecontents were returned to the Iſland to join their Partizans, and had induſtriouſly ſpread a Report, of having brought with them a Supply of 24000 Livres. The Malecontents have burnt and deſtroyed the Fattoria called the Procoia in Fiumorbo, belonging to the Families of Fieſchi and Spinola of this City; and their Agent, with his Family, has been obliged to take Refuge in Baſtia.

Rome, June 28. On the 18th Inſtant Cardinal Beſozzi died at Tivoli, after a lingering Illneſs; by whoſe Death there are ten vacant Hats in the College of Cardinals, including that which the Pope reſerved in petto at the laſt Promotion. By the laſt Letters from Ancona we have received the diſagreable News, that they had felt a terrible Shock of an Earthquake, which had occaſioned conſiderable Damage. On the 24th the Margrave and Margravine of Bareith, went to ſee the Country Seat of Cardinal Valenti, and were ſplendidly entertained there by his Order. On the 26th the Pope, attended by his Retinue and Guards, returned to this City from Caſtle Gandolfo, and the Eve of the Feſtival of St. Peter received the Hackney, as a Tribute for the Kingdom of Naples; which Ceremony was as uſual performed by the Conſtable Colonna.

Modena, July 2. The Departure of the Duke our Sovereign on his Return to Milan, being fixed for Monday next, the Detachments, appointed to eſcort his Serene Highneſs on the Road, are already ordered to their reſpective Poſts.

Vienna, July 2. Their Imperial Majeſties propoſe to return next Saturday from Laxembourg to Schonbrun. Field Marſhal Count Brown, Commander in Chief of the Imperial Troops in Bohemia, is expected here To-day or To-morrow from Prague, to aſſiſt at a grand Council that is to be held at Court on Military Affairs; after which that General intends to ſet out for Trieſte, to review his Regiment which is there in Garriſon.

Florence, July 5. The 24th of June, being the Feſtival of St. John, Count Richecourt, by a particular Commiſſion from the Emperor to repreſent his Perſon on that Occaſion, received, with the uſual publick Formalities, the Homage from the reſpective Cities, Towns and Feudatories of Tuſcany, being attended by all the different Magiſtrates and Nobility. On the 30th Count Richecourt ſet out for Siena, in Company with M. Martini, the Pope's Inter-Nuncio, to eſtabliſh the Tribunal of the Inquiſition, upon the ſame Foot as had been done at Florence, Piſa, &c.

Turin, July 5. The 30th of laſt Month the King, and the reſt of the Royal Family, came hither from the Venerie. M. Barry, the Imperial Secretary to this Court, being recall'd, ſet out laſt Thurſday on his Return Home.

Copenhagen, July 5. The King has made a numerous Promotion of Military Officers, amongſt whom the young Prince of Holſtein-Auguſtenbourg, Count Laurwig, Count Wedel-Jarlsberg, and Meſſ. de Windtz, Lutzow, Leuenbourg, and Hauch, were promoted to the Rank of Majors General of Foot; as were Count Pleſſen, and the Barons de Schenck and Rieppur, to that of Majors General of Horſe. His

His Majeſty has appointed M. Huitfeld, one of his Aids de Camp, and M. Schaffalisky, Captain in the Horſe Guards, to be his Chamberlains. General Count Nummeſen, who commanded the Troops lately encamped near this City, having obtained the King's Leave to ſpend ſome Time at his Seat in the Iſland of Laland, he is accordingly ſet out for that Iſland.

Berlin, July 8. We learn from Prentlow, that the young Princeſs, of whom the Princeſs of Heſſe Darmſtadt was delivered on the 25th of laſt Month, was baptized on the 29th by the Name of Wilhelmine.

Bruſſels, July 10. Prince Charles of Lorrain, our Governor General, returned here laſt Thurſday from Ter-Vuren, and on the Monday following ſet out with a numerous Retinue for Little Willebroek, in order to ſee the Works carrying on at the Canal. Count Czernichew, Miniſter from Ruſſia to the Court of Great Britain, arrived here with his Spouſe laſt Saturday from London, on his Return to Petersbourg by the Way of Hanover.

General Poſt-Office, July 5, 1755.

Theſe are to give Notice, That the Poſt will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge-Wells, and from Tunbridge-Wells to London; to begin this Night, and to continue during the Summer Seaſon as uſual. By Command of the Poſtmaſter General, Advertiſements.

Tueſday the 8th Day of July, in the 29th Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Second, 1755, Between James Sawcer, Plaintiff; John Marſh the Younger, Defendant.

UPON the humble Petition of the Plaintiff, this Day preferred to the Rt. Hon. the Maſter of the Rolls, for the Reaſons therein, and in the Certificate and Affidavit thereto annext contained, and upon reading the Six Clerks Certificate, and the Affidavit of Jonathan Gurney, It is ordered, that the Defendant John Marſh the Younger do appear to the Plaintiff's Bill, on or before the firſt Day of September next.

The Caſe of a Shepherd near Lincoln, publiſhed at the Requeſt of the Rev. Mr. Willis.

THE Rev. Mr. Francis Willis, of Dunſtan near Lincoln, was deſired ſome time ago to viſit one Iſaac, a Shepherd, at that Place, in order to read the departing Prayer; and went about Ten in the Morning, and found him lying ſpeechleſs, with his Tongue hanging out of his Mouth. Upon Enquiry, his Wife told Mr. Willis, her Huſband had loſt his Senſes for five Days laſt paſt. He was extremely hot, his Tongue very clean and of a good Colour, and his pulſe regular, but very ſtrong; he had no Stool for eight or nine Days; and a Bliſter, which they had laid on five Days before, did not riſe. Mr. Willis told his Wife, if ſhe would be ſure to follow his Directions, he did not doubt but he could do him good, by giving him ſome Powders (meaning Dr. James's) which he had by him: She promiſed fair, and he ordered her to give him a Clyſter immediately, and apply a Bliſter to his Back and Head. Two Hours after, Mr. Willis called again, gave him half a Paper of Dr. James's Powder, but that having no viſible Effect, he repeated it in an Hour and a half: in about an Hour after this he had convulſive Twitchings, and lifted up his Eyes, and ſhewed Signs of Death; but he ſoon began to vomit, and brought up ſlimy Stuff: which was ſucceeded by three Worms, one of which was upwards of a Foot long. In ſhort, in three Hours after taking the firſt half Paper of Powder, he ſat up in bed, was chearful, ſenſible and eaſy: the next Day he repeated the two Doſes, and brought up two more Worms much like the other: and in four Days after Mr. Willis ſaw him in a Market, ſeveral Miles from his Home, very well, ſelling Sheep.

The Rev. Mr. Willis eſteeming it a Part of Duty to communicate this to the World, has deſired it to be made publick.

N. B. It is very remarkable in this Caſe, that before the giving of Dr. James's Powders, the Bliſters never roſe; but in a few Hours after theſe were adminiſtred, they roſe very well.

☞ Theſe Powders are ſold at Mr. Newbery's, at the Bible and Sun, in St. Paul's Church-yard.
